CENSUS OF NANAIMO .- During the past week the "Returning Officer" at Nanaimo has been very busy taking a census of the district. The government not having ordered a census, at least not in the usual manner, the presumption is that the Company are taking an account of the immigrants whom they have brought out to the who were. Under the grant a return to the Colonial office of all Colonists is necessary every two years. This may possibly be the object of the census.

Report of the Land Reform Committee.

The Committee is happy to report a courteous reception from His Excellency, the Governor, who, though he promised to forward the petitions to the Home Governbe referred back to the local Legislature, which would be omnipotent in the matter. as soon as it could raise a revenue sufficient to meet the current expenses. That he is personally opposed to the present system, which he has not the power to alter; but would even advocate a free gift of a quarter section to each early settler.

That in the meantime, however, if there are emigrants here desirous of immediately settling on lands, he requests that they will make a representation to him to that effect, setting forth their actual condition and offering some guarantee of their good faith; that if there are a hundred farmers ready to settle in the Cowitchen valley, let them present themselves, and facilities will be afforded them, the Indian title extinguished as soon as practicable; that no immediate payment will be required for the land, and the price left to be determined the find, and the price let to be determined by the Legislature.

That the proposal of any persons desirous of engaging in legitimate industrial pur-suits, will be met half way, whether it be in Vancouver's Island or British Columbia, that he is willing that the very liberal law of Newfoundland with regard to fisheries, or rewroundland with regard to fisheries, be adopted in these colonies.

His Excellency regretted that details had not been entered into in the petition, assuring the committee that practical suggestions will always meet with due attention.

In reply to a suggestion relative to the actual tenure of the land, His Excellency stated that he considered the title to be still in the II. B. Company, as he had received no official notification to the contrary.

TO A THINKING MEMBER.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST : - It was stated by A Thinking Member in your last publication, that a class of grumblers were out here, who with or without reason, complained of every act of the government, down for the consent of the House, entitled that we would abolish all duties, and means of raising revenue, and would wish for anarchy to prevail; and that instead of giving utterance to useless complaints, if we would bring forward some well-digested scheme, such would be entertained. Jury, lately assembled in Langley, brought forward a set of resolutions, which if carried out, as regards the land, before we are all reduced to pauperism, by having expended what we brought, and the orders of the government carried out in calling together a Legislative and Executive Assembly, to make laws and levy taxes that are suitable to our condition, I venture to say the grumblers will soon be found raising their stock, growing corn, and not only supplying all our wants, but having a surs to give to other countries.

BED" We find the following announce, and in the Polynesian of May 28th, by the authority of King Kamehameha.

The gentleman referred to is Mr. II. Rhodes of the house of R. C. Janion & Co. and other mines to be worked in a more liberal manner for the mass, than in the neighboring territory of California. Even let a Provisional Assembly be called of 10 members, three of whom should be taken from the mining class, and immediately a vent is found. As we are at present, no one knows what laws we are under. Some of our grievances were stated in Monday's paper, and I ask what security would a capitalist have to come here? We will say he should invest a few thousands in the fisheries or mines, I ask any one would not that man be taxed to make him lose by the grants whom they have brought out to the Colony. In any case the census is incorrect, as it includes parties who were not brought out, and others are not included but of the Governor, who is more despotic who were. Under the grant a return to there no ukase comes out proclaiming a law on revenue that has not first been sublaw on revenue that has not first been sub-mitted to the Senate. But is this the case here? Every man is taxed upwards of £30 each to support absentee officials. I ask how often has the Governor been to the colony that pays him his salary? see the colony that pays him his salary? Where is the Treasurer, who is so anxiously enquired for, and all the rest? It is said that a great deal of difficulty has been placed forward the petitions to the Home Govern-in the way of parties paying their second ment, expressed his conviction that it would instalment on their lots at Queenborough. As the sale did not please certain parties, and that all lots not now paid for are forfeit, the terms of the contract and faith has not been kept with the buyers—but we must expect our property to be taken from us in some way or other, until the people can be heard in England.

The only people at their posts are the Commissioner of Land and Works, and the Collector of Customs, both are doing their duty to the utmost of their power, so far as the Governor will let them, and nearly all the rest live in another colony, and spend there the money taken from us. A petition ought to be prepared to protest against the payment of salaries of all the absentees, and that petition presented to the British Parliament, for to them we must look for relief. And if it does not soon come, we had better have a work house built and let us live in it until time is found to place the land in a proper state to be settled, as certainly we cannot go on as we are much longer. It is also said that our Treasurer, as we have no mint or assay office, sells his bills at a loss of 2½ per cent difference between here and San Francisco; this could be avoided, if he had an account there, and the colony loses this on all he now draws for, unless the loss comes out of his own pocket. He gives out bills at $4.80 a $4.85 when the exchange in San Experience $4.95 Francisco is $4.95.

An Assembly would set all that to right therefore we ask for one to be formed and liberty triumph in this land. A BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

The Latest News from Europe. THE WAR COMMENCED.

The steamer Forwood arrived from San Francisco, yesterday about noon bringing dates to 3d inst.

The steamship City of Washington, which left Liverpool on the 25th May, bound for New York, has been intercepted off St. Johns by the news yacht of the Associated Press.

sociated Press.

The news is of great importance and announces the first important blow in Italy. The Allied and Austrian forces have met and the latter been defeated. The battle took place at Montibello, a town in Austrian Italy. The Austrians were 15,000 strong and made the attack, and after a severe engagement were obliged to retreat. The allied army lost 700, while the Austrian loss is estimated at 2000. A number of Austrians had been captured and taken prisoners to Marseilles. prisoners to Marseilles.

The battle of Montibello took place on 21st of May. The Austrians, who were commanded by Gen. Stadion, attacked the posts of Gen. Baraguay d'Hilliers. They were driven back by Gen. Forey's division, after a furious combat, which lasted four hours. The allies carried Montibeilo, but did not pursue the Austians. Two hundred Austrians, including a Colonel, were captured and taken to Marseilles.

The Austrian account of the battle differs widely from the above.

A bulletin, issued by the Sardinian gov ernment, announces that the extreme left of the Sardinian army, under Gen. Baldini, had forced a passage over the river Sesia, putting the Austrians to flight.

It was rumored that six English men-of-war had entered the Adriatic Sea.

Revolutionary movements are reported in Lombardy.

The King of Naples is dead, and Francis II has assumed the government of Naples.

Later---More Fighting.

By the arrival of the North Briton, at Quebec, the news is six days later from the seat of war.

Advices from the seat of war by way of Alessandria, are to the 29th of May.

An official bulletin of that date gives a full account of the passage of the Sesia, by full account of the passage of the Sesia, by the Sardinians.

The passage was made by the village of Palestro, which, on the left bank, was strongly fortified and held by fifteen to 20 thousand Austrians. The Sardinians also numbered about the same. The Sardinians force engaged belonged to Gen. Cialdini's command, in which is the young duke of Chartres; but the King, Victor Emanuel, commanded in person.

The Austrians had constructed a strong tete de pont, which they bravely defended at the point of the bayonet. But repulsed from this, they fell back behind their fortifications in the town of Palestro. Here the fight became general, and every posithe fight became general, and every posi-tion was contested. For two hours and up-wards the battle raged from street to street and from house to house, till finally the people of the town joining with the Sardinians, the Austrians, overpowered by superior numbers, beat a retreat. They left however a large number of prisoners in the hands of the Sardinians.

The Sardinians did not attempt to pursue the Austrians, but contented themselves with the occupation of the town.

The Austrian prisoners were sent to Alesandria.

On the 29th the Sardinians were in poson the 29th the Sactimans were in possession of the whole left bank of the Sesia from the mountains to Vercelli.

BATTLE OF COMO.—At Como, and the neighboring village of Cameriata, the fight between Guribaldi's force and the Austrians proves to have been more serious than reported.

Several of the streets and strongest positions were taken and re-taken several times and when the Austrians retiring slowly and in good order, made a second and de-termined stand at Camerlata, there was a momentary hesitation to pursue them.

Seeing this hesitation, Garabaldi rushed into the midst of his troops, and calling to mind the noble cause in which they were mind the noble cause in which they were engaged, the freedom of Italy, they charged en mass upon the enemy, and in less than an hour had full possession of the town.

The next day the telegraph from Berne reported that Garibaldi had left Camerlata, and was marching on Milan by what is called "a bold movement."

No grant programment had taken place

No general engagement had taken place

Position of the Austrian Army .- The Position of the Austrian Army.—The Austrian Generals have decided to remain on the defensive on the Sardinian territory and live at the expense of the country. The army occupies about thirty leagues in length and ten in width. It is the province of Lomelline, placed between the Ticino, the foot of the Alps, the Sesia, and the Po.
